Wine of the Month

The Piece Reserve Shiraz by Longview

Every vintage, Longview in Adelaide Hills take great care to isolate select rows of the best Shiraz fruit, then go a step further by hand-picking only perfect bunches based on flavour. The yields are small but the rewards are plentiful resulting in only 200 dozen of the best Shiraz they could make.

Whole bunches in small open fermenters deliver delicacy of blue & red fruit notes. Anise & clove combine to give this wine its spicy decadence. Subtle French oak influence ensures the harvested fruit remains the star of this experience.

The Saturno family were kind enough to release some of their back vintages from their museum to the Green Moustache, enjoy them before they are gone.

Sommelier's Recommendations

2016 Bakari Confondo Rosato PET NAT

A Pet Nat (short for the French 'pétillant naturel' meaning 'natural sparkling') is a wine made according to the ancestral method. This natural & unfiltered wine shows notes of strawberry, watermelon & pink grapefruit

Veneto, IT 70

2018 Majella Sparkling Shiraz

Sparkling Shiraz, an Aussie winter tradition. Exhibiting a fine bead with attractive fresh plum, raspberry and blackberry aromas with similar black fruit characters and a hint of spice on the complex palate, which is smooth, balanced & luscious with gentle tannins & a generous finish.

Coonawarra, SA 82

2020 Autumn Moon Shivers Nero D'Avola + Sagrantino

A 50/50 blend of 2 Italian varietals grown here in Australia. A medium bodied red that is very smooth with beautiful dark fruit flavours & hints of vanilla.

Heathcote, VIC 69

2019 Hughes + Hughes Dornfelder

An obscure German red variety, It's a very interesting wine. The colour in the glass is inky purple but the wine is fresh & bright. Created using natural yeast, It's a bit of a head-scratcher but interesting & delicious none the less. Be adventurous, you won't be disappointed.
